

Stacey on war footing

SHE'S just become a mum for the first time but intrepid interviewer Stacey Dooley is about to do battle in a tough documentary, Ready For War.

The one-off programme for BBC Three sees Stacey follow a group of Ukrainians as they arrive in the UK to begin five weeks of intensive army training.

She has been given exclusive and unprecedented access to the British Army's training mission.

She'll watch the recruits prepare for deployment to the frontline in the war against Russia.

Stacey says: "These raw recruits go through one of the most relentless training programmes the British Army has ever devised.

"The Ukrainian men I came to know over a few short weeks were incredibly impressive. I think of them every day and hope their training will keep them alive."
